Think It Over!

YOU CAN HELP restore business conditions. Did you ever stop to think of that? Your dollars are just as important as the other fellow's.

No one would think of telling you how much you should spend. But it is not out of place to suggest that you can help the return of prosperity in your own city by patronizing the home merchants and that you call for Southern California products when you are making your purchases—especially your Christmas purchases.

Wouldn't your Christmas be just a little happier if you know that your dollars spent for gifts would remain here to make others happy?

Practically everything you want in the way of Christmas purchases is produced in Southern California and sold by Sierra Madre merchants. These products are just as good as those made in other places and the prices in this city just as low—in many cases lower.

Stocks of holiday goods shown by local merchants are uncommonly complete this year and the prices made to encourage home buying. See their goods and note their prices before looking elsewhere.

It is well to remember that a gift purchased here carries with it the full guarantee of your local merchant. If it needs to be exchanged he will graciously make the change.

It will pay you well—in time and money—to read the advertisements of your hometown merchant—now and always. It is a thrifty habit.

The merchants indicated below assure you of the utmost in courtesy and service and of their appreciation of your patronage.

The installing matron will be Mrs. Harriet Buckingham; installing patron, Paul Jones, assisted by Harold Roberts, past patron, and installing chaplain, Mrs. L. E. Steinberger.

Virginia Roess will give two vocal solos, "Rose in the Bud," and "Star of the East." Mrs. Hazel Hill Morgridge will accompany her daughter, Elizabeth, who will present a violin selection.

East Indian Dish
Mulligatwny is a highly seasoned, thick, East Indian-type soup of which curry powder is the essential characteristic ingredient. Meats, vegetables, mango, chutney, coconut flesh, rice, cayenne pepper, etc., are variously employed and blended to suit the ideas of the cook or connoisseur. The title is derived from two native words signifying "peppery water."

Action of Explosives
The belief that gunpowder explodes upward and high explosives downward is erroneous. Each explosive tends to act in all directions. However, when powder is placed on a surface it does not actually shatter the object it is in contact with, while dynamite goes off so rapidly that it does shatter the object it is in contact with, and the hole it makes in the earth is greater than that which the powder makes.

A son, Malcolm Clement, was born to Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Gerschler of 538 West Highland avenue, at the Hollywood Hospital, Sunday, November 30.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank U. Smith and Mrs. Erma Beaver spent Tuesday in Pasadena with friends. Mrs. E. C. Moore of Chicago and Mrs. Charles Tudor Greene of Pasadena were luncheon guests of Mrs. R. O. Caukin on Thursday.

Catalpa Victim of Moths
To be eaten alive is the fate of many of our catalpa trees. Tremendous ravages by the catalpa spruce—the caterpillars or larvae of one of our somber hued hawk moths—have stripped their boughs of foliage and left them bare and unsightly, says the Nature Magazine.

Sometimes the trees die from these severe defoliations, and occasionally entire plantations have been destroyed.

Bayberry Candles
In making bayberry candles the berries are collected from the bayberry bush and boiled in pails of water. The wax rises to the top, is skimmed off, and boiled again. Regular candle wicks are cut the desired length, attached to a rod dipped in warm water and then dipped into the pail of wax several times. Allow the wax to harden between times. The wax should be kept just warm enough to be in a liquid state.

Extension Of Baldwin Ave. Looms Again

Mountains To Sea Project Is To Follow Rosemead Opening, Now Initiated

The Regional Planning Commission's proposal to make Baldwin Avenue a main North and South highway between the mountains at Sierra Madre and the sea at Long Beach has come a step nearer reality by the institution of condemnation proceedings to secure the necessary right of way to open up and improve Rosemead boulevard as a direct connecting link between Foothill and Valley boulevards.

County Counsel Mattoon's office has finally initiated the long delayed action in the Rosemead project by filing suit in the Superior courts for acquisition of necessary land for the nine-mile right of way and the planning commission announces that the Baldwin avenue improvement is the next step in its program affecting this section of Los Angeles County.

Rosemead boulevard, now extending from Foothill boulevard just west of Sierra Madre, ends at Duarte Road and it is from this point South that land is to be condemned at an estimated cost of $228,000.

There has been much controversy among affected property holders as to the route the new boulevard shall take between Duarte Road and Durfee avenue, though the latest mapping of the Planning Commission calls for a more direct connection than any previously planned and the new route is apparently less objectionable than any that have been submitted.

The road South of Durfee avenue is already opened, but will require widening and straightening to the connection point with Valley boulevard.

Excepting for a short distance south of Foothill boulevard, Rosemead boulevard to Valley Boulevard is to be an 80-foot street, 100 feet between property lines.

Trade Body Nominates 8 For Director

Right Of Tardy Members To Vote Is Questioned In Chamber Of Commerce

Directors of the Chamber of Commerce debated for some time at their meeting on Monday night whether or not they had invalidated the primary election for the selection of nominees for directors by sending out ballots to persons who are not in good standing through the non-payment of dues. They finally voted unanimously that the nominations made in the balloting should stand as certified by the tellers, Laura E. Cadmus, W. E. Craig and Charles B. Klunk, obviating the necessity for a new primary election.

The eight persons nominated were William Middough, Charles B. Klunk, Tom Tyler, Thomas Miller Jr., George E. Mesecar, Woodson F. Jones, W. D. Richards and Albert Wheeling.

Four directors will be chosen from among these eight on ballots that will shortly go forward to the membership. The terms of four of the present directors, Robert Davies, R. C. Copenhaver, W. E. Craig and R. R. Hartman extend for another year. They, with the four to be elected, will select a president and other officers to carry on the chamber's activities during the next year.

JOURNEY THRU A SIERRA MADRE GARDEN THAT MAY TAKE HONORS IN A GREAT NATIONAL CONTEST

By JESSIE WARD RUSSELL

It would be an inspiration to anyone to visit the garden of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Dorman on East Alegria avenue near Baldwin. It won first prize among the gardens in the recent Yard and Garden contest in the class of entries designed and cared for by its owners and has been entered in the Nation's Yard and Garden contest.

This caused me to want to see it, so I spent an hour with Mrs. Dorman going over it and went away feeling that any time had only allowed me to see half of its lovely detail.

The word "charming" would describe this garden more than any other word that I can think of.

It should be encouraging to any garden lover to know that the Dorman did all the work in this garden themselves and at very little expense.

GOOD WEEK END WEATHER BUT RAIN IN SIGHT

Prospects are good that the present fair weather with moderate temperature will last over the weekend, Col. H. B. Hersey said at Sierra Madre's U. S. weather observatory this morning. At least it will last until Sunday, he said. A storm now far out at sea holds possibilities of "some weather"—rain—next week.

CLARA LARJAR DIES AT HOME IN THIS CITY

Miss Clara Larjar passed away yesterday morning at her home, 501 North Baldwin avenue, after an illness of several months. Miss Larjar was 71 years of age, a member of the First Congregational church and had been a resident of this city for seven years. She had no relatives here.

Final arrangements for the funeral services have not been definitely decided upon.

Officers Of Church For 1931 Chosen

Family Dinner Party With Music Feature Of Annual Meeting

A family dinner party held in connection with the annual meeting and election of officers of the First Congregational Church and concluding with a musical entertainment on Wednesday evening proved to be one of the most thoroughly enjoyable occasions in the long history of that organization.

Officers of the church for 1931 chosen at the election were: C. W. Jones and R. J. Lord, deacons; P. C. Kortkamp and Warren O. Preston, trustees; W. S. Hull, treasurer; Lester Bodine, clerk; H. Clay Reavis, recording secretary; Mrs. P. C. Kortkamp, assistant recording secretary; Daniel H. Lewis, auditor and S. R. G. Twycross, chairman of ushers.

Convers L. Twycross was elected superintendent of the Sunday School and Edwin M. Ward Jr., assistant superintendent.

The religious educational committee is composed of Mrs. Eva Moore, Virginia Jones, Miss C. M. Clark, Edwin Ward, Convers L. Twycross. The musical committee consists of Mrs. Homer Glidden, Mrs. E. E. Bacon and Muriel Tarr.

Among those invited to a reception on Thursday evening, held in the gallery of the Exposition Building in Los Angeles for the exhibitors of the Painters and Sculptors Clubs traveling exhibit, now showing at Exposition Park, were Henry Ivins Hawthorne, members of the club and who has three canvasses hung; Mrs. Hawthorne, Mrs. Fred Griebow, art chairman of the Woman's Club; Harriet Grant and Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Dewey.

Eighty six ballots were put into the mail 10 days ago. It was said at Monday's meeting that many of the 86 were not eligible to receive ballots or participate in the election since they were in arrears with their dues, some of them for a considerable period.

It developed during the discussion that since there was no means of identifying the ballots, the election would be invalidated if the directors voted to adhere strictly to the by-laws. So by unanimous vote the report was accepted.

1931 Rose Tournament Queen

Miss Mary Lou Waddell has just been proclaimed Queen of the Tournament of Roses to be held January 1 at Pasadena, California.

Mrs. Wright Reappointed Postmaster

Joy In The City With Word That She Is About To Enter Upon Third Term

Santa Claus has begun his work in Sierra Madre. There was joy throughout the city yesterday when a telegram was received from Washington announcing that Mrs. Jessica H. Wright had been reappointed postmistress here for another term of four years. Word of the appointment was received by Mrs. Wright at her home where she has been confined with a severe cold for a couple of days.

The appointment was made on recommendation of Congressman Evans, of Glendale, representative of this district in Congress, the telegraphic advice announced.

Mrs. Wright was appointed to her position eight years ago during the administration of President Warren G. Harding, and reappointed by President Coolidge. Her reappointment at the hands of President Hoover, a California President, was particularly gratifying to her friends who are proud of the splendid record she has maintained during her tenure of office. Mrs. Wright has been a resident of Sierra Madre for 24 years.

BABIES AT PARTY OF COUSINS BORN ON THE SAME DAY A YEAR AGO

The first birthdays of Caroline Brooks and her cousin, Mary Kathleen Scoville, were celebrated last Friday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon R. Brooks, 137 West Montecito avenue.

Caroline and Mary Kathleen, daughters of Mrs. Gordon Brooks and Mrs. Elizabeth Scoville, sisters, were born at approximately the same moment at the Altadena Maternity Hospital a year ago.

Each little girl had a birthday cake of her own with one tiny candle on it. A score of other Sierra Madre babies shared the cakes with the "twin" cousins.

Caroline and Mary Kathleen are the granddaughters of E. C. Polsue, clerk of Department 44, Superior Court of Los Angeles.

H. C. HOLLAND FINED ON BATTERY CHARGE

Herbert C. Holland was found guilty of battery on the person of Hugh Pasco, a minor, son of S. C. Pasco, before Judge William R. Lasater, Wednesday morning. A $50 fine was suspended for six months.

NEW OFFICES PROVIDED AT THE CITY HALL

Remodeling of the City Hall to provide necessary office space is under way. New headquarters for the engineering department have been created at the North end of the Council Chamber where the platform formerly stood. Adjoining it on the South is an office for the Council and one for Judge W. R. Lasater, who has shared the quarters assigned the police department.

A doorway has been cut from the office of the police department into the office of the engineering department and when the improvements now being made are completed the police department will occupy both offices.

A private office is also being made for the City Clerk's force in the main office.

The Council Chamber will be somewhat reduced in size, but still capable of seating about 200 persons.

By reason of these improvements opening of the November art exhibit in the "Little Gallery" has been postponed until December 15.

Pastmasters Attend Lodge Celebration

Jack Buchan Is Chosen Master Of Sierra Madre's Masonic Body

Nine past masters of the Sierra Madre Masonic lodge attended the Pastmasters Night session held on Tuesday in celebration of the 20th anniversary of the local organization's founding. A largely attended "Billy Murphy" dinner was a feature of the evening.

The celebration was held in connection with the annual election of officers which resulted in the selection of Jack Buchan as worshipful master; Rudolph R. Hartman, senior warden; Ralph W. Stewart, junior warden; H. E. Allen, treasurer, and Raymond Andrews, secretary.

Jay Albert Patterson of Beverly Hills, one of the nine past masters present, was the first mason raised by the Sierra Madre lodge and its fourth master, Mr. Patterson, a number of years ago, operated a confectionary store on the site where the Sierra Madre Furniture Company's store now stands.

The date for the installation of the new officers will be announced later.

Santa Claus Plans Visit To Afflicted

Christmas Packages Will Go Out With Carols And A Huge Tree

Fifty-two more memberships are required by the Red Cross here to complete the quota of 750 members. This number can be obtained if the promises already made will be fulfilled. Chairman W. R. Humphries is asking that these tardy members bring their dollars to headquarters at once.

A special meeting of the Red Cross directors was held Tuesday when arrangements were made for the Red Cross Traveling Xmas tree. This idea is purely a local one and this year 65 "shut-ins" will be visited on the Tuesday evening before Christmas.

The big City truck will transport a large decorated Christmas tree surrounded by singers of the Congregational, Bethany and St. Rita's churches, who will sing carols.

The tour of the city will start at 5:30 p.m. and the singers are to be entertained with refreshments later at American Legion headquarters in the City Hall.

This year the 65 gift boxes will be gaily decorated by the Junior Red Cross units of the public and parochial schools.

Miss Ellen Coll Barker has been appointed chairman of the Red Cross Tree idea and it is her wish that the contents of the boxes contain home made "goodies."

Already, due to the announcement in last week's issue of THE NEWS, supplies are coming in to Red Cross Headquarters. (Continued on Page Two)

Celebrate Opening Of New School

Programs Arranged For Community Dinner and Formal Dedication

The children of Sierra Madre took possession of their magnificent new school building on Monday. Next Monday evening the people will celebrate the event with a Community dinner at the Woman's Club under the auspices of the Chamber of Commerce and on next Friday evening the building will be formally dedicated and thrown open to an interested public for its inspection and approval.

Members of the Sierra Madre School Trustees under whose supervision the city's monument to education was reared and others who were conspicuous in the movement that resulted in its construction will be honored at the dinner on Monday, tickets for which must be secured or reservations made by noon Saturday.

Professor A. R. Clifton, superintendent of schools at Monrovia and President of the Schoolmaster's Club of Southern California, former President of the California Teacher's Association, will be the principal speaker at the dinner, on the subject of "Cooperation in School and Civic Affairs."

Prominent educators of the other San Gabriel Valley school organizations will be among the other specially invited guests and short addresses will be made by President J. O. Smith and Mrs. Cecily A. Allen, secretary of the trustees, as well as by J. C. Banister, principal contractor for (Continued on Page Five)

Building Of Temple Beth Israel Begun

Contract Requires Employment Of Sierra Madre Labor And Materials

A building permit has been issued and ground will be broken within the next week for the construction of Temple Beth Israel, a Hebrew school and a recreation center at West Laurel avenue and Lima street.

A contract for the buildings just awarded by J. S. Weber, chairman of the congregation's building committee, stipulates that wherever possible and to the greatest possible extent Sierra Madre workmen, building materials and furnishings shall be employed and used.

Under these conditions the contract was awarded to A. Tillin who has agreed to complete the structures and grade the recreation field between February 15 and March 1.

The plans call for a stucco Temple building 36 by 90 feet and a school building 30 by 42 feet, and will cover two large parcels of ground owned by the congregation, excepting for a generous playground covering one of the lots which has a depth of 243 feet.

The congregation has been carrying on a spirited campaign for funds for construction of the buildings, which has comprehended a number of social affairs sponsored by the women members which have been more than ordinarily successful and enjoyable.

The Temple has issued invitations for a Thanksgiving Concert to be held at the Woman's Club House, West Central avenue, on Sunday, December 14, at 6 o'clock.

DOLLING UP CITY IN HOLIDAY ATTIRE TO GREET SANTA CLAUS AS YULE SPIRIT MOVES PEOPLE

Sierra Madre will begin to take on its holiday attire in earnest today. By Monday it will be in full dress to receive Santa Claus.

Plans for decoration of the city on a bigger scale than has ever been attempted before were completed at a conference between the street committee of the City Council and directors of the Chamber of Commerce on Monday night, the councilmanic committee consisting of Ralph W. Stewart, Lester K. Layton and H. Clay Reavis having authority to represent the Council in the matter.

Wreaths, stringers and garlands of cypress, cedar and holly will be strung from Montecito and Baldwin avenues through Kersting Court and Central avenue to Auburn avenue.

This Christmas greenery will connect up the lighting standards which will also be wrapped with it and adorned with two wreaths each. This much of the decoration will be furnished by the city.

Trial Of Mrs. MacArthur Is Nearing End

Former Deputy City Clerk Elects To Have Judge, Not Jury, Pass On Her Case

The State expects to complete its direct testimony today against Mrs. Marie MacArthur, former deputy city clerk of Sierra Madre indicted on several counts of embezzlement of city funds and now on trial before Judge Carlos Hardy, in Los Angeles.

After four postponements the case was called on Monday morning and Mrs. MacArthur, who arrived in the court room several minutes after the trial was scheduled to begin, exercised her prerogative by electing to be tried before a judge rather than a jury.

When adjournment was taken last night the State was in the midst of an examination of handwriting experts who testified as to entries made in the Sierra Madre water ledgers and Deputy District Attorney Kemp announced that the last of his witnesses would be called today. It is expected that trial will extend into the early part of next week.

Many Sierra Madreans have attended the sessions so far held and half a dozen Sierra Madre witnesses have been called, including City Clerk Elmer A. Green, deputy clerk Daniel H. Lewis, Mrs. Florence Jensen, bookkeeper in the water department, Donald Robertson, a former clerk at the City Hall and H. E. Allen, president, and Mattie Seelye, assistant cashier of the Sierra Madre Savings Bank.

The State has confined itself almost exclusively to the presentation of documentary evidence, the present and former city officials and employees merely identifying exhibits and entries in the books and explaining the method of keeping the accounts and depositing and withdrawing water department collections and balances. The bank officials testified as to the manner in which the bank handled the account.

Then came the handwriting experts to testify in support of the State's contention that the water accounts were falsified to cover up alleged shortages and to identify the handwriting that the prosecution contends concealed the taking of public money over a considerable period of time.

Mrs. MacArthur is represented by Attorney George Glover, who expects to open for the defense this afternoon.

City Represented At Conference Of Older Boys Of YMCA

The Y.M.C.A. Older Boy's Conference held over the weekend at Coronado Beach, San Diego, was the most successful and important yet held.

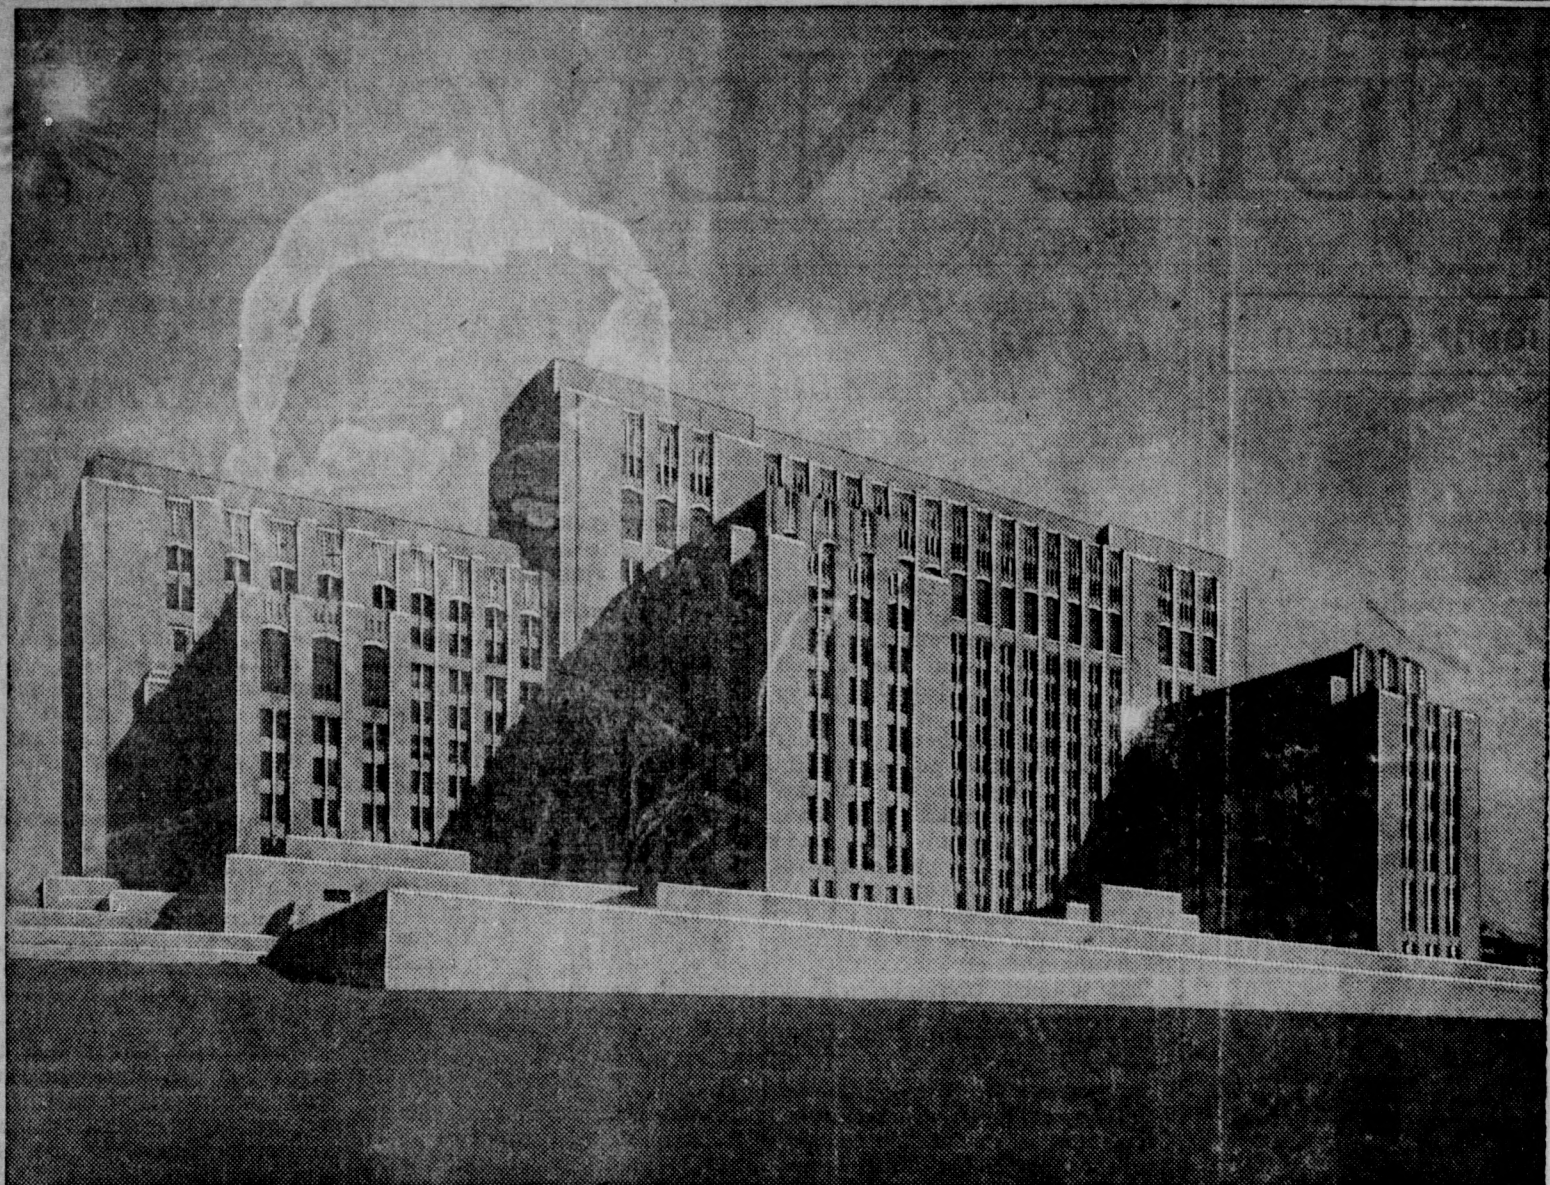

The theme of the conference was "World Brotherhood," and it was shown in the fine friendship and brotherhood for our brothers of other nations. Six hundred were enrolled including a delegation from San Gabriel Valley cities, under the direction of Dwight Welch, Blake Manning and the leader of boy's work, Ralph Yeats, were the delegates who represented Sierra Madre and spoke well of the great friendship and spirit shown.

Federal aid to the extent of $150,000 in the construction of the Pines-to-Palms mountain highway in Riverside and Imperial counties has been assured. The road is under construction mostly with prison labor. It will be one of the Nation's most scenic drives.

Into the background thus created the merchants and property owners in the downtown district will fit their individual decorations, which according to plans of the Chamber of Commerce, call for a gaily decorated and illuminated tree about 10 feet high in front of each business establishment.

This is the standard, uniform decoration agreed upon. The individual merchant may go as much further as he pleases in the effort to win one of the three ribbons to be awarded for the best decorated stores and buildings, according to Charles B. Klunk, W. E. Craig and Albert Wheeling, the Chamber of Commerce committee that planned the decorative scheme.

VISITORS HUNT OUT WORK OF THE "DAUBER OF CAVENDISH SQUARE"

CUPID WITH TRUMPET BRONZE ITALIAN 16TH CENTURY HUNTINGTON LIBRARY

MISS HONORA LUCY AS SERENA, ATTRIBUTED TO GEORGE ROMNEY

THE HON. THERESA PARKER BY SIR JOSHUA REYNOLDS

"Romney's 'Miss Honora Lucy as Serena,' and Sir Joshua Reynolds' 'The Hon. Theresa Parker,' greatly interest the five hundred daily visitors to the Huntington Library and Art Gallery, at San Marino.

Toward the middle of the eighteenth century, when Sir Joshua Reynolds was laying down the law for portrait painters, George Romney began to attract attention as a painter of portraits, and the Jovian Joshua was of course displeased. He especially disliked Romney, who was said to be courted and overrated, and referred to him as "the dauber of Cavendish Square."

Then Romney produced his "Serena," which Sir Joshua pooh-poohed and undertook to put to shame by producing something better—"The Hon. Theresa Parker."

It is said that Reynolds never could understand why people patronized Romney. But Romney's female portraits became the rage among fashionable connoisseurs of the eighteenth century, and if you think they have lost favor, watch the crowds at the Huntington Art Gallery.

One thing people are beginning to find out—that, in addition to books, manuscripts and paintings, this treasure house also contains some of the finest specimens of bronze work in the world. The vase here pictured came from the collection of J. Pierpont Morgan, and there are many of equal rank in the Arabella D. Huntington Memorial Collection.

ters—preserves, canned fruit and promises of home-made cookies and candies. All of these gifts must be in by the Saturday evening before Xmas.

Books, small cheery pictures, puzzles and other items that will cheer the shut-in, are needed, also ornaments and decorations for the Christmas tree.

Those present at Tuesday's meeting were Mrs. J. O. Smith, Miss Lydia Webster, H. Clay Reavis, Mrs. Fred Griebenow, Mrs. J. H. Wright, Mrs. E. C. Barker and W. R. Humphries.

A letter has just been received from Red Cross Headquarters in San Francisco complimenting Miss Elizabeth Steinberger, the junior Red Cross chairman here, on the excellency of the 30 Christmas boxes made by the pupils of the public and parochial schools. The letter said in part:

"We know, of course, that the boxes from Sierra Madre would be perfect in every respect but we could not resist the temptation to look into one or two of them to enjoy the beauty of them ourselves. I know there will be 30 very happy boys and girls in Japan because of the generosity of their Sierra Madre friends."

The Red Cross officials will make public next week a complete list of contributors to the local fund, which is being held open for a few days in the hope that the full quota will be reached. This list will be published in next week's issue of THE NEWS.

Miss Finlay Eyster of 197 North Adams avenue, received word of the coming celebration of the 100th birthday anniversary of her only living aunt at Canton, Ohio, which will take place, December 20th.

A very delightful week-end party was given by Mrs. E. R. Thompson at her home on East Highland avenue, for the members of her Sunday school class of Hoover Street Baptist church in Los Angeles. Mrs. Thompson's house guests were Betty Hedman, Dorothy Perry, Dorothy Dummer, Virginia Shaffer, Geraldine Kelly and Marie Bennett.

Rhymers to Royalty

There seems to be no authentic record of the origin of "Poet Laureate of England" but it is recorded that Richard Coeur de Lion had a "versificator regis," a development of the practice of earlier times when minstrels and versifiers were part of the retinue of the king.

to which was assigned the responsibility of interesting the schools in the city decorating program, reported that they had joined enthusiastically in the undertaking. The children have or will create articles with which to decorate a number of windows in the shopping district. Some of the merchants have placed one or more of their windows at the disposal of the children. The chamber of commerce will have cleaned and furnish illumination for any vacant store room windows, which will be apportioned between the schools.

For the purpose of making these windows attractive the grammar school will use much of the work of its pupils made in anticipation of the dedication of the new school plant and which will be on exhibition there until the dedicatory exercises of next Friday.

The children of St. Rita's school have started to create their decorative work and most of it will be ready early next week.

There has been a generous response to the invitation of the Chamber of Commerce to residents to decorate trees on their lawns, or to string colored lights through the shrubs and about their homes, though this feature of the program to make the city cheerful and gay for the holiday season will not become effective until about December 20.

Necessary Arrangement

"He who seeks to agree with everybody," said Hi Ho, the sage of Chinatown, "must arrange, as far as possible, to speak with only one person at a time."—Washington Star.

Explaining Abbreviations

"Mr." was originally the abbreviation of "master" in the Sixteenth and Seventeenth centuries in England. "Mister" is merely a rendering of the pronunciation of the abbreviation. It was used as the prefix for anyone below the rank of knight. "Mrs." is an abbreviation for "mistress," originally one who had care or authority over servants. "Miss" is derived from the same word.

"FOR OUR SHUT-INS" We need preserves, cookies, candies, books, etc.

H. H. Mendiniss of 2252 Harwood street, Los Angeles, was arrested at Sierra Madre and Central avenues on Tuesday evening and taken to the municipal jail charged with driving while intoxicated.

He was followed from the downtown district to the city limits by Fire Chief W. D. Richards, who made the arrest. It is alleged that Mendiniss drove recklessly through the shopping district and knocked over a traffic signal at Central avenue and Kersting Court. He was released by Judge W. R. Lasater under $1,000 bail.

RELIEF FROM CURSE OF CONSTIPATION A Battle Creek physician says "Constipation is responsible for more misery than any other cause."

But immediate relief has been found. A tablet called Rexall Orderlies has been discovered. This tablet attracts water from the system into the lazy, dry, evacuating bowel called the colon. The water loosens the dry food waste and causes a gentle, thorough, natural movement without forming the habit of ever increasing the dose.

Stop suffering from constipation. Chew a Rexall Orderlie at night. Next day bright. Get 24 for 25c today at the nearest Rexall Drug Store.

BEACON OF REDLANDS PRESS FLICKERS OUT

Redlands is becoming a big and important Southern California city and by reason of its splendid citrus crops, one of the most prosperous in the State, but it seems to prefer one good to several mediocre newspapers. The Redlands Free Press has apparently made its last appearance. It was put forth as a weekly some time ago and has led a precarious existence, missing several issues. It failed to appear again last week. The publication was without its own publishing plant.

Mrs. Mary Lewis of 153 North Lima street, entertained Mrs. Cora Gordon of Los Angeles, at her home last Saturday.

BUSINESS LEADERS' PLAN TO HELP A CITY

"It's time to stop crying hard times and start doing something about it," said John Lee Wilbur, head of the newly organized Community Welfare League, a group of independent merchants organ-

Favorite Dishes Of Sierra Madreans

THE recipe for Lizzie's flannel cakes and waffles is the favorite of many Sierra Madreans, as well as of Marion Harland, foremost of all America's home economists, who wrote of it: "After several years trial of this simple recipe I can recommend it, unhesitatingly, as the best, cheapest and most wholesome way I know for preparing breakfast cakes. The excellence of the cakes, I find, depends upon quick mixing and baking. Waffles made by the same recipe but made a little thinner by using less flour are equally good." Here is the recipe:

Two cups of flour, two cups of sweet milk; one egg; one teaspoonful of baking powder; a generous pinch of salt.
Beat the egg very light; add the milk and, lastly, with just enough beating to mix all together, the flour, sifted twice with salt and baking powder. Bake at once.

ized for the purpose of fostering business in Hayward.

"Let's stop wearing long faces and complaining," he added, "and help ourselves and the community by making our places of business cheerful and telling the people what we have to sell in cheerful, truthful advertisements. Business will follow as day follows night."

PARIS PICTURES AN EVENT IN THIS CITY

Pictures of a recent happening in Sierra Madre are appearing in the news and illustrated sections of European newspapers. A letter from a friend in Paris enclosing clippings from a Paris paper has just been received by Mrs. J. M. Campbell, of Park avenue. Among the clippings is a picture of the human birthday cake made up of the city's school children who were the guests of O. T. ("Uncle Wiggly") Weidman at City Park on the occasion of his 66th birthday. Pictures of the "cake" were taken by news agencies and sent all over the world.

One out of every six children born in California is a Mexican; 26.3 per cent of all the babies born in Los Angeles county last year were of Mexican parentage.

Approximately 1500 flights have been made without an accident in the glider which was constructed a year ago and is owned by the student members of the Glider Club of the University of California at Los Angeles.

San Diego county's citrus growers received somewhat more than $3,750,000 for their crops this year, $2,700,000 for 1648 cars of lemons and $1,050,000 for 473 cars of oranges—$800,000 in excess of the previous high mark established by the crop of 1928.

A fleet of six radio laboratories on wheels now constitute the mobile squad of the Government's "police of the ether," and tour the country to check the operations of all broadcasting stations. They are soon to be joined by two additional trucks.

Arthur D. Oliver, vice-president of the Wells Fargo Bank and Union Trust company of San Francisco, visited various banking establishments in San Gabriel Valley last week. According to his statement to the officials of the Sierra Madre Savings Bank, Oliver has found no more favorable business conditions anywhere in the country than in this section.

Actual formation of the San Jacinto Mountain State Park, where the loftiest peaks of this range and virgin forests will be maintained as a wilderness area for public use, appeared close this week when request was made by the state for the $40,000 appropriation set aside by Riverside county. This will match a similar sum from state park funds, the $80,000 being used to acquire title to forest lands.

Disagreement with those who assert that there must be no retrogression in American standards of living was voiced by Eugene R. Black, governor of the Federal Reserve Bank of Atlanta, in an address before the nineteenth annual convention of the Investment Bankers Association of America. American business men can not bring back prosperity, Governor Black declared, by slogans, but it must be done by the people as a whole developing their characters and paying their debts, and learning to live within their means.

Beverly Hills is going to do more than just build a $250,000 city hall and a very magnificent fire station to emphasize the importance the new census figures give it. It is going to create a civic center at Crescent Drive. Even the government has been asked to join. The postoffice the city now has was conceived when Beverly Hills was a hamlet—just a short time ago. Beverly Hills will donate a site for a new postoffice, but is picky about the sort it shall be. It must cost $200,000 and be architecturally in harmony with the ritzy new city hall, Uncle Sam has been told.

'As' sure as I am standing here,' said W. S. Gifford, president of the American Telephone & Telegraph company, addressing a Salem, Mass., audience, "this business depression will soon pass and we are about to enter a period of prosperity the like of which no country has ever seen before; a new era of big business working for the fulfillment of its social obligations; a new development in industry to work out the problems of distributing what we have, on the basis that we have plenty to go around."

A "committee against militarism in education" has filed a petition asking that military training be made optional with the students in Iowa's educational institutions which now require military training.

Thirty-eight floats have been entered in the Tournament of Roses parade on New Year's Day. And some fifteen or twenty other communities are planning entries, according to William Dunkerly, manager of the Tournament Association.

The maxim of "never too old to learn," and the forward trend of adult study in California is shown in the report of Boyd B. Rakestraw, acting director of the University of California Extension Division, revealing the fact that approximately 5000 adults are taking correspondence studies under the University.

TWO LOCAL PLAYERS WIN PRAISE FOR WORK

The work of two members of the Sierra Madre Community Players in the characters in the old stage favorite, "Shore Acres," now being produced at the Community Playhouse in Pasadena, is attracting much attention.

Pasadena and Los Angeles critics have been generous in their praise of Mrs. James N. Hawks' interpretation of Ma Berry, wife of Martin Berry, the story of the play revolving about the Berry family. The character work of James N. Hawks as Joel Gates, a "grass widower" and neighbor of the Berry's, has been given untold praise by theatrical writers as well as by Sierra Madreans who have seen their neighbors portray their parts.

Money Put To Its Highest Use In The City's New School Building, Reader Says

(Editors Note: The following is a communication to THE NEWS from Harry Lyons, of 80 East Laurel Avenue.)

In 1905, the Pacific Electric Railway was presented with about $23,000 in cash by this community, as a bonus and right-of-way cost, because the road (then under another name) asked for it. It was difficult to get street car service, and this community met fully the conditions set.

That gift may be the crowning argument for a progressive program as outlined a year ago but postponed, especially as the Pacific Electric (according to the Star-News of Tuesday, Nov. 25) announced it "will spend approximately $420,000 in new motor coach equipment in Pasadena."

In 1930, Sierra Madre is making a $210,000 gift to the children of elementary school age in the form of a simply gorgeous, perfectly-appointed, utterly magnificent, modern school building, which covers a 600-foot block in width, with ample playground space in its rear.

One has to inspect the interior of this building to realize its magnificence. Some say it is the finest elementary school in this entire state of fine schools, and certainly nothing rivaling it is possessed by any other California community of equal population and wealth.

It wasn't built from any selfish motive. That is self-evident, for it will house but six grades, same as in the older building that is being discarded in toto.

Commercially speaking, from the viewpoint of "getting the most for the money," there is ample room for criticism, but as a "gift" to the little tots from about six to eleven years of age, who are hardly mature enough to realize what has been done for them, it is simply far away and above argument.

The school was not built for the teachers, but for the children, and it is positively "the last word" outside and in. There is beauty all over it, inspiring beauty, and nothing usable seems to be omitted from the equipment.

From the dainty rooms of the primary classes to the auditorium seating several hundred, nothing appears to have been overlooked or omitted. President Hoover, that great understanding lover of all children, who seldom has their welfare out of mind, would be amazed and impressed by what has so lovingly been done right here in Sierra Madre.

One has to look at all of the school plant, mentally compare it with any other heretofore seen, catch the spirit of non-commercialism, realize the extraordinary breadth of vision that called it into being, to know beyond argument that here money has been put skillfully to one of its highest and best uses.

After all, the money spent did not stay in the school, but has already passed into the hands of those who did the work and supplied the materials, and from their hands will go to others right speedily—a very good thing at this time.

Sierra Madre could have "gotten along" with less artistry, less completeness of treatment and equipment, rougher utility, but in that case some of the effects would have been lost, and this great gift cheapened. For that is what it is—"a gift."

Incidental benefits that may spring from it to older people certainly were brushed out of the picture as unworthy of consideration. It is a simply magnificent accomplishment.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Wheeling entertained with a theatre party at Grauman's Chinese Theatre in Hollywood on Thanksgiving Day. Robert Shaffer, Daniel Shaffer, S. T. Wheeling and Ruth Wheeling enjoyed the afternoon.

Firemen's Christmas Gift To People Of Sierra Madre

After months of labor the Fire Fighters are painting and polishing the $10,000 piece of equipment they hope to have ready for the municipal stocking on Christmas eve and that will bring an added sense of security to the people. This is the Christmas gift with (left to right) Chief W. D. Richards, Robert Babbitt, Joe Swanson, Harlan Gerlach, Frank Lovell and Don Hosford.

While the Volunteer Fire Department is handing out fat stockings of gifts and candy to the children of Sierra Madre, sending out baskets of food and delicacies to the sick and least fortunate and radiating the spirit of Christmas about the community tree in City Park on Christmas eve, it will incidentally present the municipality with a $10,000 piece of fire fighting equipment assembled by the firemen themselves at no cost whatever to the citizens.

The men have been working on the combination fire truck, ladder, hose cart and water tank since last March when they were presented with a Pierce-Arrow chassis. It is nearing completion now and by diligent effort it is hoped to have it ready to turn over to the city as a Christmas present.

While one crew of the firemen is hard at work finishing up the fire truck, others are out over the city selling tickets for the big Christmas card party and dance to be held at the Woman's Club on December 20 and otherwise trying to raise a sufficient fund to carry on their annual distribution of Christmas cheer.

They first undertook this responsibility in 1921 and the dance and card party through which the necessary funds are raised, has become an annual event to which the people look forward.

Proceeds from the sale of tickets for the holiday social event are all used in creation of the fund. The city has been divided into eight districts and two men have been assigned to sell tickets in each of these. They may call upon you any time now and are hopeful that the joyous Yuletide spirit has reached your heart before their arrival and that you will be generous.

The ticket sellers are all in uniform and householders and merchants are warned to buy tickets only from or make donations only to uniformed firemen.

SCHOOL

the building and J. S. Powell, member of the firm of Marsh, Smith and Powell, the architects who designed it.

The school trustees will meet today to arrange a program for the dedicatory exercises next Friday. Their tentative decision is that the exercises themselves shall not be lengthy but that the parents of pupils and other citizens shall have much of the evening to make a thorough inspection of and familiarize themselves with the building's beauty and utility.

There will also probably be an exhibition of the work being done at the school by the pupils, some of which will later be used by the children for decoration of display windows of merchants in the downtown district during the holiday season.

It has been definitely decided that Superintendent John Sexson of the Pasadena City Schools shall be the principal speaker on the dedicatory program. President J. O. Smith, of the trustees, will preside. It is also probable that there will be a musical program.

In the meantime the Parent-Teacher's Association is arranging a meeting for the purpose of organizing for the years' activities. Mrs. Isabel Asbury is the choice of many of the members for president of the association.

Tickets for Monday night's community dinner can be had from R. C. Copenhaver, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, Charles B. Klunk, Robert Davies or at the office of THE NEWS. The dinner begins at 6:45.

The Misses Ethel and Lois Wright, Mrs. Zeda East and Boyce Wright of Pasadena, family of the late Dr. O. C. Wright of Greeley, Colo., were Thanksgiving dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. Albrecht of 687 West Alegria avenue.

'Ushud' Read Carew's Tale Of Shippey

Sierra Madre Writers Exchange Criticisms On Their Writings

When his publishers put forth Harold Carew's interesting three-volume history of the San Gabriel Valley, his fellow Sierra Madrean, Lee Shippey, wrote a criticism of it in his column, "Lee Side o' L.A."

Now that THE SIERRA MADRE NEWS has given the world Shippey's latest and best production, "Folks Ushud Know," Carew has returned the compliment in the book review section of the Pasadena Star-News, over which he presides while not writing histories, poems and things at his home here in Sierra Madre.

In his current book review Carew writes of the new Shippey book as follows:

That humorist and wit who conducts "The Lee Side o' L.A." a column in the Los Angeles Times, has gathered into a second book his pen-portraits of noted Southlanders. The series began last year with "Personal Glimpses," and there are to be, in all, four volumes "which will form a sort of Who's Who of Southern California's more famous residents," as the author indicates on the title-page. His well known collaborators, Adam Sinner, Byron Dudd, Tennyson Mable and Seymour Seitz, those whimsical other selves of his, have quietly withdrawn from the picture, and left Lee himself standing alone in the role of poet. Among the 28 poems included is "The Unknown Reporter," his tribute to the newspaperman who seldom or never gets a by-line, yet whose fealty to the job is the very backbone of journalism.

Mr. Shippey is the interviewer par excellence, the trained observer who soon gets the measure of a man and knows how to transfer his pen-portraits to the printed page. Among the 23 persons interviewed and selected for this book are Montague Glass, Frank Hamilton Spearman, Hamlin Garland, Mme. Schumann-Heink, James W. Foley, Frederick Russell Burnham, Lawrence Tibbett, Ralph Waldo Trine, Ramon Novarro, Ellen Beach Yaw, Ronald Colman, John Steven McGroarty, Frederick Warde, Ruth Chatterton, Jesse L. Lasky and Irene Rich.

The present volume is uniform with the earlier book, being bound in wistaria covers. Sketches by

Most Ancient Tree

The McNab cypress tree taken from an asphalt pit in California is thought to be more than forty thousand years old. The wood was preserved by the asphalt, which was thickly incrusting over it.

Base Honor on Cathedral

Although it has only three streets and less than 100 houses, St. David's, England, claims that it is a city because it has a famous cathedral.

Underwater Terrors

The average weight of the American submarine ranges from 600 to 900 tons. The thickness of the sides is from one-quarter of an inch to one-half an inch, depending upon the type of submarine.

Gaboriau's Crime Stories

Most of the thrilling crime romances of Gaboriau, the great French producer of detective stories, were written as newspaper fiction. Gaboriau, who died in 1873 at the age of thirty-eight, is said to have been Bismarck's favorite author, says the Gas Logic Magazine.

Mr. Ewing are most effective. "Folks Ushud Know" sells for only one dollar a copy and makes a most excellent Christmas gift for friends interested in literary and motion-picture personalities.

A Real Gift Shop

A shop can be all the word implies. It can also be much more or much less. Here is a new shop within a short distance of your home, where you will find many lovely articles for Christmas gifts, as follows:

Sierra Madre May Get Its Christmas Seals Right Here

"Every postmaster has a distinct interest in the Christmas Seal bearing the crimson double barred cross," states Postmistress E. J. Wright. "It was a postal clerk who first had the idea of using a Christmas Seal for the raising of funds to aid children suffering from tuberculosis in the United States."

"I am especially happy to see the Christmas seal used to universally in Sierra Madre. Many requests are coming in from people who did not get seals mailed to them by the Los Angeles County Tuberculosis and Health Association. For this reason a supply of Christmas seals has been sent to the post office by the association. If anyone will but ask for them, I will be glad to supply any additional needs or a direct request may be sent to the association headquarters, 132 West First street, Los Angeles, and Christmas Seals will be mailed to the address given. "In using Christmas seals I want to caution the public to use them only on the backs of letters, never on the face. They may be used profusely on packages, only care must be taken that they do not interfere with the government post stamps."

"FOR OUR SHUT-INS" We need preserves, cookies, candies, books, etc.

It is estimated that 10 per cent of the orange, lemon and grapefruit crop in the Glendora district was lost in the windstorm.

Confessed dynamite and TNT thieves were jailed at Azusa, now the Ontario district is having an epidemic of fertilizer thefts.

Aiding the campaign of El Monte's women to make their city "the most colorful and beautiful in California," the Council has appropriated money for the distribution of poppy and other seed to be planted in all the city's parkings and vacant lots.

The recent big windstorm swept a freight car off a siding at Hemet and blew it along the main tracks to Winchester, a distance of 10 miles. The brakes had been loosely set when the car was unloaded.

Orange growers in the Hemet district are getting in on the Christmas trade for the first time in several years. The first carload left Hemet early last week, consigned to Kansas City and others followed later, though the heavier shipments will not begin until later in the month.

Arcadia officials have decided to sell the site of the city hall and establish a civic center at Wheeler avenue and Double Drive. Architects have been engaged to prepare plans and visualize the improvement for the city's voters, after which it will be submitted to them at an election to be held probably in January.

A committee consisting of representatives of Upland's civic organizations will shortly present to the City Council a list of names of fruits, flowers and celebrated Spaniards and Spanish places for the designation of that city's streets now given numeral or alphabetical designation or having the other very commonplace titles.

Already enjoying the reputation of a successful poultry section, Temple City is out after laurels as a vegetable shipping center. One grower has been shipping cauliflower at the rate of two cars a day from a 10-acre field right at Arcadia's border and says he will continue at this rate for two months or more. His product is going directly into New York.

The Monrovia Woman's Club is making elaborate preparations for the entertainment in January of the President's Council of Federated Women's Clubs. The sessions will be held in a theatre. It is tentatively planned to entertain the club women at luncheon in the social halls of the various churches in the city, as the Woman's clubhouse will only accommodate approximately 300 diners, whereas 1500 are expected to attend the meeting.

Doris Manly, of Azusa, reputed to be the champion woman fly-caster of the San Gabriel Valley, caught a dozen 11-inch Rainbow trout and forwarded them to Congressman Phil Swing in Washington with orders to rush them to the White House in time for the fish course for the Thanksgiving dinner. In a special delivery letter to the Hoovers she offered to keep the White House table supplied with more like them throughout the winter while the President is unable to catch his own in the mountains of Virginia.

Many Interesting Topics Booked For Forum Discussion

Dr. Frederick W. Roman at the Forum meeting at the Woman's Clubhouse Wednesday evening explained the difference between the Court of Arbitration and the Permanent Court of International Justice, a matter of public interest now because the subject of America entering the World Court will be before the present session of Congress again.

Dr. Roman also discussed the book of Charles and Mary Beard, and followed the influence of early English traditions on the political beginning of the American colonists.

Dr. Roman was followed by H. E. Miles who is one of the best informed men on the tariff amongst all the business men of the United States. For more than thirty years he was a prominent manufacturer in Racine, Wis., and vice president of the American Manufacturer's association.

Mr. Miles discussed the operation of American tariff laws and the result of the present law's enactment.

The Forum will meet again on Thursday evening, December 11, at which time Miss Sue Brobst, chairman of the Legislative Council of the California Federation

Ocean Levels
The mean level of the Pacific ocean at the isthmus of Panama has been found to be about eight inches higher than the mean level of the Atlantic. In the month of February the mean levels are the same, but throughout the rest of the year, on account of current, tidal and wind influences, the mean level of the Pacific ranges above that of the Atlantic. It is as much as one foot higher in October.

GETTING READY FOR OUR SPRING VISITORS

Now when everyone is preparing lovely gardens for the Spring that will make Sierra Madre bright and beautiful when the visiting thousands come for our Wistaria Fete and to admire our beautiful city, it is well to talk about planting.

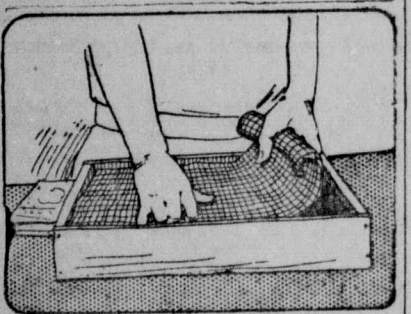

The inexperienced gardener often finds it difficult to germinate the smaller flower seeds. It is a comparatively simple matter when the few simple rules are mastered the custom usually practiced by home gardeners on the Pacific coast is to sow the seeds of such perennials as Delphinium, Aquilegia, Hollyhock, Pansies, Snapdragons, Stocks, etc., in small seed boxes or "flats" for transplanting later.

A flat is a box about 20 inches square and about three inches deep. Fill the flat to the top with a fine, loamy soil, containing approximately one-fourth screened leaf-mold, or well-decayed barnyard fertilizer. Firm the soil in the flat with a brick or block of wood, leaving a smooth surface. This will level it to within about an inch of the top of the flat. Broadcast the seeds on the surface, pressing them lightly into the soil, and cover them with a mulch of screened leaf mold, peat humus, or some similar material. They should be covered to a depth of about two and one-half to three times the breadth of the seed itself. Fold a burlap sack to fit on top of the soil after the seeds are sown and covered. The purpose of the burlap is to hold the soil, seed and mulch in place, to prevent washing and to retain the moisture. Apply water slowly until the soil is thoroughly packed. Place the flat in the shade during the summer months and in the sun during the winter months. Lift the burlap occasionally to see if the seeds are germinated and then at the first sign of germination remove the burlap, then sprinkle lightly, keeping the soil thoroughly moist until all of the seeds have germinated.

The young plants require sunshine, therefore the flat should be placed in the sunlight after all the seeds have germinated. When the plants have acquired a second or third set of leaves, or when they have grown sufficiently large for transplanting, they may be removed to the open ground. They should not be left in the flats for too long a time, as younger plants are more successfully transplanted than those that have grown too tall and woody. In removing them from the seed box or flat for transplanting, a sharp knife may be used to good advantage in blocking out a little soil with each plant, leaving the root system and soil as little disturbed as possible. By growing your own plants they may be transplanted from the flat at a time when the soil is properly prepared and without undue exposure or excess handling. Keep a record of your plantings, so that you will know the varieties, particularly those you wish to continue in your garden another year.

STOCKS, EASILY GROWN, SHOULD BE IN GROUND NOW

Among the popular garden flowers of the west that should be planted now if they are not already in the ground, are the fragrant stocks, admired not only for their delightful perfume, but also for their beautiful flowers. In stocks, however, there are always a percentage of plants bearing single flowers, and it is suggested that setting two plants in a place, or setting them close together in the rows, those plants bearing single flowers may be removed as soon as flowers appear, and those remaining will produce a fine display of double flowers.

Start the seeds in flats or cold frames and transplant them to the open ground after the plants have four or five leaves, or the seeds may be sown in the open ground where the plants are to remain.

Stocks are easily grown and require only the ordinary cultivation. Too much moisture may cause the foliage to turn yellow and drop, therefore each sprinkling or irrigation should be followed by surface cultivation. When this system is practiced, the soil must necessarily become sufficiently dry before cultivation, so that there will be little danger of applying too much water.

The home gardener is generally interested in the tall branching stocks that may be used as cut flowers. These include the Bismarck, or Giant Imperial, Giant

BISMARCK STOCKS

Perfection, Nice and others. They usually grow to a height of 1½ to 2½ feet and flowering branches may be removed for cut flower purposes without disfiguring the plant.

Another popular class of stocks is the Ten-Weeks, valuable as borders and often used for massed color effects. Since they do not grow as tall as the branching varieties, they are not so desirable for cut flowers.

WHY AVOCADO AND CITRUS TREES TURN YELLOW AT THIS TIME

Many citrus and avocado trees turn yellow at this time of the year causing considerable worry, especially to new growers with young trees, according to W. H. Williams, Assistant County Farm Advisor.

This condition is frequently a simple case of starvation in a poor soil where there are no nitrates and no organic matter from which bacteria makes nitrates. This often occurs in sandy soils where nitrification takes place very rapidly and organic matter is soon consumed. In such soils it will likely be necessary to supply organic matter twice a year or else give frequent applications of commercial fertilizers such as sulphate of ammonia, nitrate of lime, nitrate of soda, etc.

Another, more insidious, cause for yellow leaves comes from too frequent and heavy applications of water. Heavy applications far apart especially on medium or heavy soil, will bring about the most helpful condition in citrus trees, but frequent applications whether heavy or light are not good for trees in such soil.

Red Spiders Doing Severe Damage In Many Citrus Groves

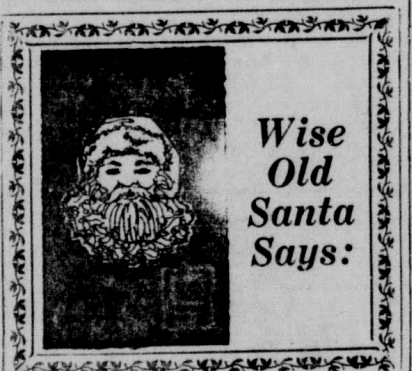

In the southern and eastern sections of Los Angeles County very severe damage by red spider has been observed this fall, according to W. H. Williams, Assistant Farm Advisor.

This spider causes the leaves to lose their natural glossy green and to show whitish irregular spots or specks where the insect has withdrawn the sap from the tissues. These grayish or whitish spots or dots may also show upon the fruit. In some places where it has been severe, defoliation has resulted.

The best control for spider is the use of a light oil or an oil with lime sulphur, but to get definite recommendations for the particular time of year you want to control your spider, it will be wise to get in touch with the Farm Advisor's Office or the Agricultural Inspector of the district for specific recommendations.

evening. A Russell is vice chairman of the organization and Charles J. Young secretary-treasurer.

The board of directors consists of T. F. Yexra, D. J. F. Willett, George F. Blakeslee, W. J. Schiltz and Fred H. Jones.

Rex Thompson, secretary of the organization in Los Angeles County was here to help establish the local unit of the association. He said it was a "fact finding" organization, non-partisan and non-political in its purpose, that aims to secure the greatest possible efficiency and economies in the administration of public affairs throughout the State through the medium of study, publicity and a better understanding of public affairs by the people.

The public, Mr. Thompson said, particularly in Southern California, is prone to look too optimistically upon great expenditures for public improvements without considering the day of reckoning that arrives with tax statements and the association seeks to keep the people informed of their expenditures and the certain effect of bond issues and other outlays upon the tax rate.

Missionaries From Several Distant Lands At Bethany

Surprises that developed during the evening and without any prearrangement whatever, made the service at Bethany church on Sunday night one of the most interesting ever held in the Baldwin avenue edifice.

As he was about to open his sermon on "The gospel of Christ as the only panacea for the ills and sins of humanity," the pastor, Rev. William Duncan Ogg, recognized in the audience a missionary from far off China and called

The Xmas Spirit—And Public Spirit

The other day a newcomer who has lived here but a month asked me why I took so much interest in and gave a great deal of time to public affairs.

My answer was short and sweet: "Because it pays me to know what's going on and to help in every way any movement that tends to promote the betterment of this city." Not so short an answer, either.

This is an age of competition and the merchant or town that offers the most in value and service wins. Some people have accused me of wanting to boom Sierra Madre. We have the room but there's no need for boom. All we need here is 500 more families; families that want the best for their kiddies, and of course the parents.

The all-wise Creator when he did the perfect job of making this section of the world, expected us to do our share, in fact the old saying "God Helps Those Who Help Themselves" applies here in Sierra Madre as much as any other place in the world.

Motion properly applied makes promotion—Are we standing still, just moving, or really going ahead? The answer is up to everyone of us. I believe in Sierra Madre. Sometimes I get a little blue when I see golden opportunities slip away from us. Some of these chances lost due to a lack of proper facilities—or understanding of a newcomer's needs.

Many a sermon has been preached in this city for which the pastor has received nothing but thanks. Many have held public office and received nothing but kicks. I find many people kicking about the idea of planting palms around the business section.

Some day a business section, beautiful, different and slightly will spring up within a mile of our business center and then we will have to hustle to revamp some of the business houses—the value of the property itself and of course the general appearance.

Trees are one of Sierra Madre's greatest God-given assets. The time to plant trees is now. A tree goes a long way to beautify a city. Are we going to take advantage of our opportunities now or do it after the next war?

It is far more blessed to give than to receive and at this Christmas tide when the giving of gifts and good wishes is in season, I offer my wish that the same spirit can be carried through the three hundred and sixty five days of the coming year.

Public spirit is akin to the Christmas Spirit.

upon him to give a brief recital of his work in that land.

During this talk the pastor learned that other missionaries from India and the Latin America were present and called upon them in turn until all had been heard, the pastor announcing that he would set aside his sermon so that all of the interesting visitors might be enjoyed.

Those who had quietly gathered with the congregation were Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. Canfield of the China-Inland Mission of China; Dr. and Mrs. E. G. Eaton and Rev. Mr. Platt and wife of the Heart of India Mission and Mr.

Togge, who has done much missionary work in South America.

A Family Gift For Mother ... That You All Can Enjoy

A Westinghouse or Hotpoint Electric Range

THE HOTPOINT DE LUXE

THE WESTINGHOUSE DE LUXE

It's ABOUT THIS TIME OF YEAR that secret family conferences begin. What to get Mother is the theme. It's an important question. It should have serious consideration, and here's a thought for careful contemplation...

Why not a brand new, spick and span, smart and up to the minute automatic electric range... a Westinghouse or Hotpoint automatic?

Can you think of anything finer... anything that would be more unexpected... anything that Mother would appreciate more, not just for a day or a month, or a year, but for all time to come?

It's a real idea. But keep it to yourself. Don't let Mother suspect. Make it a real surprise. Your electrical or household appliance dealer, or your neighborhood Edison office will be glad to plan with you. And you'll probably be glad to discover that this most wondrous of all Christmas gifts, because of an easy purchase plan, will cut into your Christmas budget very little.

Along the Paths of Yesterday

A History of Sierra Madre from the files of The NEWS.

FRIDAY, NOV. 29, 1906—

It rained throughout Thanksgiving Day, but the clouds broke during the afternoon and revealed a gorgeous sight—the mountains all roundabout covered with snow. The thermometer, meanwhile had dropped to the lowest level it has reached in six years.

This city, in common with others of the San Gabriel Valley, is in the midst of a fuel famine. It is impossible to get coal. Monrovia has had none for weeks. A carload of wood was received at Monrovia yesterday and trucks unloading it for delivery were almost mobbed by anxious citizens whose fuel supply had run low or was exhausted.

FRIDAY, DEC. 2, 1910—

Next April 20 has been fixed as the date for the opening of Sierra Madre's first annual Flower Festival and the whole city is digging and planting to have the city look its very best when the date arrives.

The city is in the midst of a lively bond campaign, the people to vote December 13 for or against the issuance of $40,000 in bonds to augment the water supply.

The trustees have asked for bids for the improvement of Windsor Lane.

FRIDAY, DEC. 3, 1915—

The trustees dismissed charges against Chief of Police George Cox based on a conversation to which there were no witnesses and in which the two persons to the conversation gave entirely different versions.

Arbaltia Ranch on East Central avenue has been sold by L. May Alden to E. B. Washburn, of Chicago.

Deacons of the Congregational church elected Wednesday are V. L. Graham and F. H. Hartman. The new trustees are Charles F. Gray, Howard Hill and J. E. Thompson. Henry W. Hill was elected clerk and W. S. Hull, auditor.

FRIDAY, DEC. 3, 1920—
Prof. E. H. Reynolds says he has looked all over California and decided this is the State's most ideal homesite. He has just moved here and awarded the contract for two houses on Central avenue.

Final figures on the year's orange crop in the state shows a gross income of $81,200,000.

Judge C. W. Forman announces that the Red Cross quota has been exactly met.

Margarita Bains, daughter of Mrs. M. M. Bains of 79 East Highland avenue was married on Wednesday to George Johnstone at the Church of the Ascension.

Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Kinbrough celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary with a dinner party at their home here.

flaged with ornamental plantings until they blend into the landscape as if they were there by design.

As you enter the grounds, you notice a hedge along the front line of Pyracantha Yunnanensis that has been pruned low. This hedge will be a gorgeous sight when it is covered with its red berries. As you come inside and start up the drive, you can see one of the two exquisite lily-pools. The second pool is on a higher level and is separated from the first by shrubbery and fruit trees.

Ever Blooming

I stood for some time and studied the planting about these pools. I could see that Mrs. Dorman had planted enough of a variety so that she would have bloom at all seasons of the year. In front and at the sides of the pools she had used low growing plants and in the back she had massed tall shrubs and trees such as Tamarix, Heather, Pyracantha, Lalandi, Papyrus Grass and the fruit trees that were already there. About the rest of the pool, she had used purple Salvia, Orange and Red Cannas, Statice, Transvaal Daisies, Day Lilies, Heliotrope, Diasma, Mandina, Coprosma, Iris and Trailing Junipers.

In the back of the house was a shady nook that Mrs. Dorman devoted to her Begonias and other shade-loving plants. It was a sweet little bit of garden and refreshing on a hot day like the one on which I called.

An apricot tree grew at the corner of this garden and a "wire vine" covered its trunk. Its dainty maiden-fern-like foliage blended in so well with the plants in this shady spot. Further down the path was a plum tree with a beautiful Fuchsia, full of bloom, leaning against it and hiding the trunk of the tree.

One of the remarkable things about this garden was the way Mrs. Dorman used every little bit of space and made it beautiful. Nothing was left bare and unsightly.

The front part of the house was partly covered with the Solandra vine or "Cup of Gold."

This vine produces yellow flowers almost as big as your head.

ADOPTED, SIGNED AND APPROVED THIS 26th DAY OF NOVEMBER, 1930.

AL. S. MYERS,
Mayor of the City of Sierra Madre, California.

ELMER A. GREEN,
City Clerk of the City of Sierra Madre and Ex-Officio Clerk of the City Council of said City.

STATE OF CALIFORNIA

CITY OF SIERRA MADRE

I, ELMER A. GREEN, City Clerk of the City of Sierra Madre, do hereby certify that the foregoing resolution was duly adopted by the City Council of the City of Sierra Madre, State of California, and signed by the Mayor of said City, at a regular meeting thereof held on the 26th day of November, 1930, and that the same was passed by the following vote:

AYES: Councilmen: Reavis, Stewart, Layton, Lees and Myers.
NOES: Councilmen: NONE.

ABSENT: Councilmen: NONE.
(Seal) ELMER A. GREEN,
City Clerk of the City of Sierra Madre.

Because the windows are low in front of the house, she planted compact growing shrubs here and is pruning them down. Here there are: Rapholepis, Pittosporum Tobira Variegata, Japanese Holly and Pyracantha Yunnanensis.

Along the west line of the yard are tall trees of pines. These screen out the vacant lot to the west and afford a little shade for the lawn in the afternoon.

When I was about to leave and thought that I had been all over the yard, Mrs. Dorman said she would like to have me see what she had done with her pepper tree. So she led me across the lawn and behind some shrubs and there was another garden—a fernery, and under a pepper tree, too!

Against the trunk of this tree was a rustic bench which she told me had been made by Mr. Dorman out of an old peach tree.

There were many varieties of ferns growing in the shade of this large tree—among them a tree fern. Where there were no ferns, moss grew between stepping stones.

Now this should be another inspiration to those who say that they just cannot grow anything under their pepper trees.

I hope that I can soon again drop in and visit Mrs. Dorman and her garden for I am sure I must have missed a lot in that first visit.

Fire Flames

By one of the boys

A CARLOAD of noted gentlemen from our "peaceful" village left last Thursday for a duck hunt. Among these authoritative gentlemen was our own police chief and comrade fireman, Gordon McMillan. As we only write this on hearsay, we are not liable, and hope that no bad results may develop therefrom. Any way, one of the members of the duck party reports that Mack "cracked" that he would get the first duck. Seated on the edge of a flat boat (that nearly held water) Mack spied a covey of the much sought birds, and remembering his challenge, hurriedly applied his double-barreled popper to his shoulder and let 'er go. His comrade told us that he didn't know whether the gun kicked or whether "Mac" kicked the gun, but he said Gordon just flew off the side of the boat, into the water. As he came up for air, he asked "Mud" Reavis how many he got out of the bunch. "Mud" said, "You didn't get any, but you sure made 'em change their position."

At our meeting last Friday, all details of the "Big Party" were arranged. Everything is in readiness. The chief presented each member with a pack of tickets to sell. Oh! how we love to sell tickets. The city was laid out in territories and men given their respective districts. To sell tickets for a benefit affair is to some of us like asking a favor, and if people would only consider this and have a heart, it would greatly encourage me timid fellows.

Due to a recent illness, it was necessary that George Cox relinquish his membership as an active fireman. George has been a member of the fire department for a long period of years and until recently took a most active part in fire proceedings. The result of the immediate election to replace George, brought forth the membership of Robert Newberry, who will now share in the abuses and personalities so fondly cherished by his firemen cohorts. "Bob" has already had considerable experience as a fire-fighter, having been a forest patrolman for a number of seasons.

The coming Christmas Tree affair will not be without the assistance of our dear and sweet ladies. In the very near future the wives and sweethearts of the fireboys will gather at a designated and appropriate post to cut and sew the stockings that are to be filled later. They will undoubtedly do other than cut and sew. It may really be hazardous to allow the ladies to hold too many meetings. Their discussion may develop into "husbands."

Nights are getting colder and we make our houses warmer. Let's be careful. Be sure the flue is O.K. and that your gas connections do not leak. Don't go to bed and leave a fire in the fire-place. Some folks do, but few houses are safe. Let's hope we are rid of the old terra-cotta pipes that stick out through the side of the house.

'Tis bed-time now, cause the FIRE'S OUT.

Noted Engineers To Report On Metropolitan Aqueduct

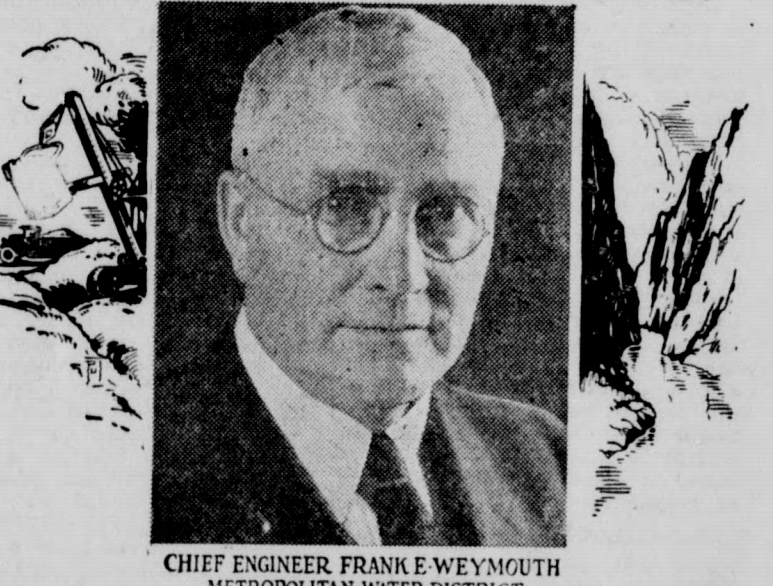

THADDEUS MERRIMAN

RICHARD R. LYMAN

A. J. WILEY

CHIEF ENGINEER FRANK E. WEYMOUTH
METROPOLITAN WATER DISTRICT

Colorado River Aqueduct Board of Review including Thaddeus Merriman, A. J. Wiley and Richard R. Lyman now engaged in conducting review of the exhaustive aqueduct route report prepared by Chief Engineer Frank E. Weymouth of Metropolitan Water District.

Headed by Thaddeus Merriman, chief engineer of the New York City water system and builder of famous Catskill Aqueduct, largest water supply system in America, the special board of review retained by the Metropolitan Water District is scheduled on December 20 to bring in its recommendations on the best and most economical route for an aqueduct from the Colorado River.

Other members of the board of review are A. J. Wiley of Boise, Idaho, and Richard R. Lyman of Salt Lake City, both internationally known consulting engineers.

The detailed report filed recently with the District board of directors by Chief Engineer Frank E. Weymouth is being thoroughly studied by the Merriman group.

More than six years of constant study and engineering survey work formed the basis of the Weymouth report and findings. During the course of these years of investigation, Weymouth pointed out, more than 60 different possible routes for an aqueduct were tested and studied by district engineers and consulting geologists.

Mr. Weymouth has recommended an aqueduct route having its intake on the Colorado River near Parker. Such a line would come westward via Shavers' Summit and after skirting the San Bernardino mountains above Coachella Valley would tunnel under the San Jacinto mountains in the vicinity of San Geronimo Pass.

Chairman W. P. Whitsett of the Metropolitan board of directors in presenting the Weymouth report to the Meriam board of review for its information instructed this board to make an independent study of the route problem and to be bound in no way by the Weymouth findings in any matter.

Judges Decide On Jail Terms For All Drunken Drivers

On the theory that drunken drivers are potential killers and that fines are inadequate in dealing with them, judges of the criminal division of the Superior courts of Los Angeles county in conference have decided upon a uniform punishment for the offenders—imprisonment.

The judges are not yet willing to go so far as to sentence every drunken driver to San Quentin, so at their conference it was left to the discretion of the individual jurists whether the offenders shall merely be confined in the county jail for a short period, or whether they shall bear the brand of a felon by the longer sentence at San Quentin. But it was agreed that there shall be no exception, hereafter, as to the manner in which this deadly class of offenders shall be dealt with.

"Most of us," said Judge W. J. Wood, "believe that San Quentin prison terms are too severe. On the other hand, the practice of imposing fines, even the maximum of $5000, has not always proved a sufficient deterrent. So hereafter the offender is going to jail, at least."
